

Master of Science (M.Sc.) Information Technology

Providing the Industrial Perspective on IT

A programme offered in co-operation between universities in Sweden, Poland, Germany and Denmark.

After the Bachelor degree level in the computer or electrical engineering fields, students can continue with this two-year master's programme. It will provide the experience of studying and living in at least two different European countries and working in an international environment. The programme is held in English.

Sweden

Wrocław University of Technology

Poland

Hochschule Ostwestfalen-Lippe
University of Applied Sciences

Germany

Denmark

www.it-master.org